

New Fee Structure for Services Requested
Effective February 1, 2007

This will serve as formal notice that on December 18, 2006, at a public meeting of the Board of Accountancy the Board voted unanimously to re-instate fees for services the Board is not legislatively mandated to perform: however, has experienced an ever increasing volume of requests from individuals. The following services will be performed, for a minimal fee as prescribed below:

For:

----------------------------------	----------------

This is a formal letter which states the individual's grades received on the CPA Exam.

A Statement of Good Standing	$15.00

This formal letter only includes name, certificate number, date of issuance and whether or not the certificate is in good standing with this Board.

A Verification that an employer is a CPA in Good Standing.	$15.00
---	----------------

This is usually in the form of a request from another state board of accountancy to this board requesting verification that the individual signing an experience letter for a candidate applying for certification in that state is a CPA in this state in good standing.

Statement of Passing CPA Exam	$20.00
--------------------------------------	----------------

This formal statement only includes verification that an individual has passed the entire CPA exam, this does not include grades.

Replacement of Original Certificate	$20.00

A fee will be assessed for the replacement of the original certificate, if the holder loses it or it is destroyed due to fire or water damage, or there is a name change.

A fee will be assessed if the certificate is lost in the mail or not delivered to the recipient and it is the fault of the recipient, as the recipient has moved, or gave an insufficient address. A fee will not be assessed if in the delivery of the certificate the mail service misplaces the certificate.
